8:30 a.m. – 8:45 a.m. | Welcoming Remarks
Patricia Gardner, Chief Executive Officer, Silicon Valley Council of Nonprofits

8:45 a.m. – 9:00 a.m. | Opening Keynote
The link between health and stable housing is indisputable. The Health Trust's mission is to build health equity in Silicon Valley. Their programs address health and housing needs in our community, and they are a leading partner in supporting policies and services to build equity and access for all in our community.
Michele Lew, Chief Executive Officer, The Health Trust

9:00 a.m. – 9:15 a.m. | Spotlight: Expanding Hospitals: St. Louise and O'Connor
Health is growing field and demand for services is increasing from prevention to hospitalization. How will the acquisition of O'Connor and St. Louise hospitals by Santa Clara County expand the reach of the County health system? How can nonprofits better interface with the public hospital system?
Paul E. Lorenz, Chief Executive Officer, Santa Clara Valley Medical Center

9:15 a.m. – 9:45 a.m. | Plenary I: Innovative Nonprofit Partnerships in Housing
Affordable housing is the single most pressing issue facing our community. While the State, County and many local cities are aggressively allocating funds and land to increase the supply of affordable housing, these efforts will take years to implement. How are innovative solutions like Safe Parking, Home Sharing, and projects like the Quetzal Gardens mixed-use housing development being implemented in collaboration with a variety of nonprofit partners helping to impact the crisis in the shorter term?

Panel: Susan Castillo, Program Manager, House Sharing Program, Catholic Charities
                Bruce Ives, Chief Executive Officer, LifeMoves
                Camille Llanes-Fontanilla, Executive Director, SOMOS Mayfair
Moderator: Leslye Corsiglia, Executive Director, SV@Home
